

WAYNESBORO COUNTRY CLUB
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
MANAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT CHANGE

The Waynesboro Country Club Board of Directors has selected Mr. Steven T. Glossinger, CGCS from Towson, Maryland for the new combined roles of General Manager, Club House Manager, and Golf Course Manager/Project Manager for the Club. Steve has served as Golf Course Manager/Project Manager at Caves Valley Golf Club in Owings Mills, Maryland for twenty-one years and he was also the former General Manager/Golf Course Manager/Project Manager for Point of Woods, in Bent Harbor, Michigan.

Steve has been the Major Championship Superintendent Host for the US Open, Senior Open, Senior Tour Players, Western Amateur for eight years as well as Women's and Men's NCAA. Some of his distinguishing recognitions have included being selected in the Top Ten Superintendents in the World by the Golfer Magazine, selected to Golf Digest Panel as Golf Digest Rater, and awarded the National Turf Manager of the Year by Toro Company.

His Major Golf Course Designs and Improvements have included the renovation of golf holes, tees, and bunkers at Caves Valley Golf Club with Tom Fazio, Project Manager. He was also involved in the Bunker renovation at the Point O' Woods Golf and Country Club in Oakland Hills, Michigan. In his career, Steve has mentored more than 30 Assistant Superintendents now employed as Superintendents at top clubs across the country as well as 62 College Students in the field of Agronomy.

Steve holds a Turf Management Degree from Andrews University, Berrien, Michigan as well as Honorary Degree in Turf Grass Management from Michigan State University. He is an annual guest speaker at Michigan State University, Rutgers University, and the Penn State University.

The Waynesboro Country Club Board of Directors are looking forward to Steve's leadership in both the Club House and Golf Operations. Please join us in welcoming Steve and Ann Marie to the Waynesboro Country Club.

Sincerely,

Gerry Reichard
